An opportunity to meet top buyers,
designed to foster new business opportunities.

At InOut | The Hospitality Community, you are not only visible: you are connected.
With our exclusive My Agenda by InOut system, you can book targeted meetings with a selected contingent of national and international buyers interested in hospitality products and solutions.

Three strategic reasons to exhibit

- One-to-one meetings with buyers

Architects, interior designers, hoteliers, property managers, general contractors and large hospitality groups: meet them in person, at the right time.

- An agenda tailored to your business

With My Agenda by InOut, you organise your schedule of meetings at the show, choosing the buyers that best match your business objectives.

Expand your market

Meeting international buyers opens up new business horizons. The event is designed to help contract companies expand internationally

- Strategic positioning

InOut offers you a highly specialised environment consistent with your target group, guaranteeing visibility and valuable contacts, with no effort wasted.

BUSINESS COMES FROM MEETING. TAKE THE FIRST STEP.

Training opportunities and content

A schedule of events that taps into industry trends and anticipates changes in how we will experience hospitality.

The core of the content:

- Seminars, talks, panel discussions and case histories.
- Talks by leading experts, companies and testimonials.
- Focus on innovation, sustainability, design and new formats.

Travel & Hospitality Vision. Anticipating change. Driving innovation.

Travel & Hospitality Vision is presented during the show every year. This strategic tool takes a snapshot of the main economic trends and changes in consumer behaviour that will shape the future of tourism and hospitality.

Developed by TTG Travel Experience, Vision is designed to support those working in the industry with data, insights and scenarios that can guide their business decisions. It provides content with high added value, for those who want to be one step ahead.

Who is it aimed at?

It is a practical tool for:

- Tour operators
- Tourism boards and promotional institutions
- Hoteliers and managers of accommodation facilities
- Travel agents
- Destination managers
- Designers, content creators and travel designers

What it offers:

- A clear interpretation of the trends that will drive the market in the coming years
- Practical insights for building effective communication strategies and plans
- A guide to navigating ever-changing markets with awareness

How to access Vision:
